Sub: Payment of full Tuition Fee for one Term and full Ph.D. Examination fee in the case of revision of Ph.D. Thesis suggested by the external examiner(s).

This is to bring to your kind notice of all the concerned the provisions of the Award of M.Phil/ Ph.D. Degrees Regulation, 2019 related to revision of Ph.D. Thesis.

Regulation No. 16.7 - Revision

16.7.1

If the report given by one external examiner is satisfactory and the second examiner suggests revision, the student will be informed through the supervisor by the Department of Examinations. The student shall make the necessary revisions and re-submit it within six months from the date of intimation from the Department of Examinations. Then it shall be sent to the same examiner who had recommended revision. If the examiner rejects the thesis / or the report is unsatisfactory even after revision, it shall be sent to the third examiner on the panel. If the third examiner's report is satisfactory, the thesis shall be accepted. If the third examiner suggests revision, the same procedure shall be followed as outlined above. If it is rejected by the third examiner, the thesis shall be rejected. The student shall be considered to have failed and will be informed accordingly by the Department of Examinations and Evaluation.

In case both the examiners suggest revision, the thesis shall be sent back to the student for revision through the supervisor. The student shall be required to re-submit the thesis within six months. Thereafter, it shall be sent back to the same examiners. The procedure thereafter regarding accepting and rejecting the thesis will be as mentioned earlier.

Note : In all of the above cases of revision, the student will have to pay complete tuition fee of the last term and full examination fee again as per the prescribed rules, until the thesis is resubmitted.

Accordingly, as per the aforesaid provisions of the prevailing Regulation No. 16.7 related to Revision of Ph.D. Thesis, in the event of revision in Ph. D. Thesis as may suggested by one or both external examiners, the concerned Ph.D. Scholar shall be required to pay full tuition fee equivalent to the Tuition Fee of the last term and in addition, shall pay full Ph.D. Examination Fee within the stipulated time limit.

The Heads of the University Departments and Directors / Heads of the Recognized Institutions are requested to bring the aforesaid provisions of the prevailing Regulation No. 16.7 to the notice of the concerned Ph.D. Scholars and their Research Supervisors (Ph.D. Guides) and take the necessary action in accordance of the provision as stated hereinabove.

The aforesaid Award of M.Phil/Ph.D. Degrees Regulations 2019 have come into force with effect from May 26, 2019.
