5.1.3-Event Report on वाचन प्रेरणा दिवस (Vachan Prerna Diwas)

Date - 15th October 2020

Venue - Google Meet

Time - 4 pm - 4:45 pm

Vachan Prerna Diwas is celebrated on birth anniversary of our late President Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam who strongly advocated 'reading' more as a necessity rather than just a mere hobby. Reading exposes the minds to different cultures and languages of the world. To celebrate his thinking, we students and staff of C U Shah college came together to share the review of our favourite books with each other.

The event was conducted by Council 2020-2021 under guidance of Dr. Aparna Palshetkar. It was hosted by Ms. Rashmita Poojary and presented by Miss Neha Solanki. Mrs Rohini Waghmare shared the importance of reading in life & students shared their experience on their favourite books.

Ms. Shweta Sarap from M. Pharm shared about beautiful classic "Don mane" by V. S. Khandekar, Shweta briefly explained that book says secret of successful life lies at the Centre. If both these minds are equal in strength then one can make life happy and if this happy life is developed properly then there lies the success. Miss Rachna Yadav from Final year B. Pharm spoke about Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam's autobiography "Wings of Fire". This book shares all the struggles of his life that led him to become a successful man known to be Missile man which inspired us all that dream big, work hard and nothing is ever impossible. Miss Aditi Soman from TY B. Pharm shared some inspiring review of "How I taught my grandmother to read" by Sudha Murty. The book shares the real-life experiences and emphasis on key importance of education in life. Later Miss Vaishnavi Sali from SY B. Pharm shared with us her all-time favourite book "Shyam chi Aai" by Sane Guruji which enlightens us about upbringing of child by embodying sacraments, humanity, love, ego management and many other qualities. Then Miss Prati Sonkamble from SY B. Pharm shared about "Mankallol" by Achyut Godbole which tells us about mental health its treatment, symptoms and how we shall not ignore it by misunderstandings as it also an important part of our body and we shall not be ashamed or embrace to treat it or share our problems with others. The book is all about sharing and learning with experiences and lessons.

Lastly, principal Dr. Pratima Tatke addressed international students & encouraged us about reading, sharing and learning. She shared few childhood experiences about how fun reading and sharing use to be and also shared her favourite book "Papillon" by Henri Charriere which tells us about the man's struggle while he was in prison for 14 years and inspires us to never lose hope. Furthermore, she said some motivational thoughts like books are best friends for life they give us motivate, experience and courage to live a happy and successful life and in addition she said to cheer and uplift us all about a famous dialogue "books never complain nor demands anything from us" from movie Ajab prem ki gajab kahani movie. After that Mrs Rohini Waghmare shared with us her favourite book "Vishakha" which is full of interesting poems by Kavi Kusumagraj.

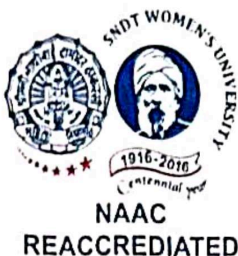

Dr. Aparna Palshetkar concluded the meet by giving a delightful vote of thanks

Five days' online workshop on Data Analysis using Excel & R
(From 24th May 2021 to 28th May 2021) – 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.

We were privileged to have Dr. J.K. Sachdeva, Professor of Quantitative Analysis and Decision Science, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, JOURNAL OF GLOBAL ECONOMY as our Chief Resource Person for this 05 days Online Data Analysis workshop held on 24th May 2021 to 28th May 2021. He helped the students to understand the importance of different statistical tools used by researchers. The sessions were conducted on Zoom. Students who did not have access to laptops or computers downloaded the app on their mobile phone or tablets, free of cost.

DAY 1 – 24th May 2021

On 24th May 2021, the five days' workshop on started on a very jovial note. This workshop witnessed an active participation from over 108 students as well as professors on the first day. The program commenced with a brief welcome given by Dr. Ruby Ojha followed by introduction of Dr. J.K Sachdeva given by Dr Sanjay Phad.

Topics covered:

- The importance of review of literature in research
- The benefits of research
- Insights of research
- Procedure/Methodology of research
- Research related issues

DAY 2 - 25th May 2021

After an exemplary session on the first day, the workshop witnessed an active participation from over 90 students as well as professors on the second day.

Topics covered:

- The four potential sources of research problem
- Research Design and its classification
- Hypothesis : Null Hypothesis and Alternate Hypothesis
- Normal distribution, Standard Deviation and Z score
- Likert scale

DAY 3- 26th May 2021

The highlight of the Day 3's session was the Introduction to R programming which brought in attention from all the participants to resolutely learn the new dimension of data analysis. A total of 98 students as well as professors participated on the 3rd day of the workshop. Indeed, after two days of engrossing workshop, participants were bound to address this one as Dr. J.K. Sachdeva Sir was going to introduce the R programming and its contribution in the research process.

Topics covered:

- The difference between data analytics and statistical analysis.
- Installation of R and other packages.
- Working on Console in R.
- Hypothesis testing through Z table and the Thumb rule of analysis.
- Creation of null and alternate hypothesis
- Use of standard deviation for analyzing data

With great programming comes, great questions! Since all the students were not aware to this domain, there were more than 20 questions flooded in the chat box related to the download, issues, and queries and so on. This resulted in a comfortable atmosphere and interactive process of upgrading oneself to new skills and tools necessary.

DAY 4- 27th May 2021

The fourth day of the workshop witnessed the participation of over 90 people ranging from students to professors.

Topics covered:

- Degree of freedom
- Analysis of Likert scale on R
- T-test, One tailed test , ANOVA
- Commands errors which we should avoid
- Installation and loading of packages on R
- Calculation of mean, standard deviation, standard error, t-stats on excel (basics)
- Plotting of one-tail and two-tail test with normal distribution
- Regression and testing of regression with the help of data collected on R software

DAY 5-28th May 2021

The last day of the workshop witnessed the participation of 90 people ranging from students to professors.

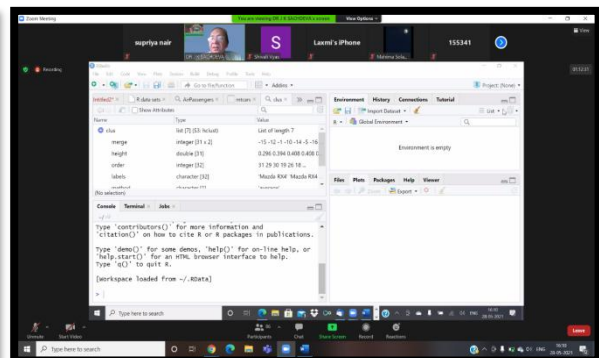

Topics covered:

- Standard Deviation and Standard error
- Working on Console in R
- Hierarchical clusters
- Factor Analysis

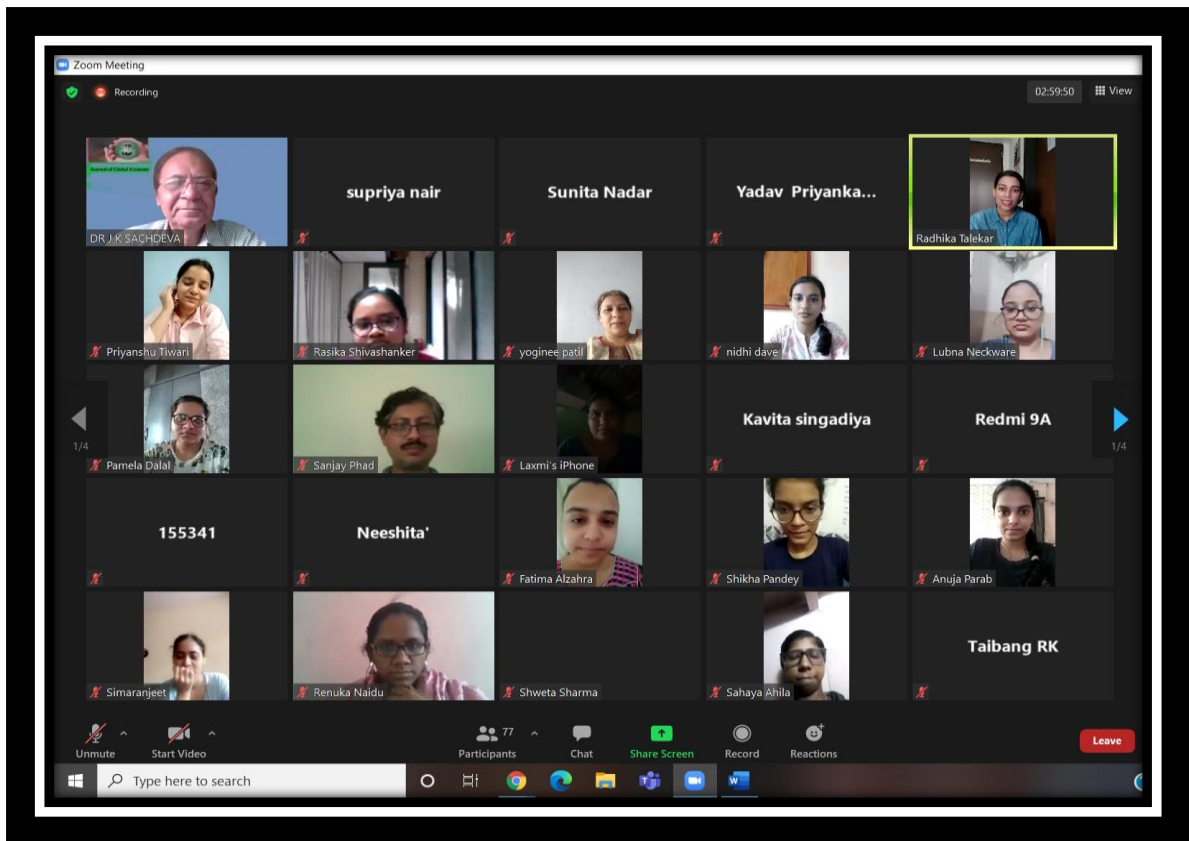

This session ended with few doubts, and queries from the students followed by a vote of thanks by Ms. Radhika Talekar, teaching faculty at SNTD, Churchgate.

Overall, the overall session was interactive and very informative. It ended on a positive note and the feedback by the participants were optimistic.

Professor Ruby Ojha, Head of the Department was the pillar of support throughout the session for all the students. She was assisted by our faculty member Dr. Sanjay Phad.

Report on Skill Enhancement program on Library Database

The Department of Family Resource Management along with the other Departments of Home Science, organized a webinar on Information on Library Database on 15 May, 2021. Dr. Vrushali Rane, Deputy Librarian SNDTWU was the resource person. Prior to the Webinar the Departments had shared a Google form to collect information related to the research and thrust areas of the students and shared the information with the resource person beforehand. On the basis of the interests of the students the resource person conducted a lucid and informative webinar. The students were introduced to various databases and portals which would help them in their research. Information was also provided on how to make optimum use of the resources available. The students were provided with the login ids to use the e resources available. In all 65 students benefitted from the webinar. Feedback was taken from the students after the webinar. The students were extremely happy with the information shared and were confident about using the various search engines.

Induction programme report-2020-21

Students join the engineering institutes from diverse backgrounds and it is important that they acclimatize themselves to the new environment of the college. Keeping this as an objective AICTE has introduced mandatory induction program to the newly admitted engineering students before the commencement of the regular engineering classes. This would help the students feel comfortable with the cultures of the new institute, motivate them towards exploring academic and extra-curricular interests, to create bonding among each other and teachers, develop awareness, sensitivity and understanding about the self, society and nature.

After the successful completion of the first induction program in the academic year 2019-20, it was time to conduct first ever virtual induction program for the new engineering students amidst the pandemic. General engineering department of UMIT teamed up with the members of student council to plan and organize one week induction program for the fresher's. It was conducted in the third week of January 2021. Events were planned to engage the students in physical activities, games, arts, to make them work for excellence, to enable team work, to promote bonding within them, to realize the broader view of life and to build character.

Induction program began with a formal virtual orientation program where Principal of Usha Mittal institute of Technology, Dr. Sanjay Pawar and heads of various departments addressed the first year students and their parents introducing them to the history and vision of SNDT University, UMIT culture, familiarizing them with the departments, placements and career opportunities for engineers. Later Student council and other student organizations gave compelling speeches about the councils on campus and encouraged the students to join their councils to achieve holistic and overall development and for an experience they will always cherish. They stressed on the importance to strive for balance between academics and extracurricular. A virtual tour of the campus made the students feel that they are connected to the campus.

To start the day in a healthy way yoga sessions were conducted every morning at 8 am by Dr. Anjali Joglekar (Dept. of physical education, SNDT Women's University) explaining the students about benefits of yoga. Apart from that physical fitness as well as self defense sessions were also conducted which are need of the hour. Sessions on soft skills, self and social responsibilities, understanding the essential life skills by well known speakers from TCS, members of art of living and ISKON were very refreshing and educative. These sessions have helped the students acquire their own learning's. Another exciting segment of this induction program was the sessions by distinguished alumnae. We were fortunate to have overseas alumnae from different engineering disciplines interacting with our freshers. They shared their memories on college life, team work that had helped them to mould their career. They also briefed the students on the importance of higher education and industry expectations. Students seemed very inquisitive while interacting with the alumnae. Since physical visit to a location by the students was not possible because of the current situation, a virtual industrial visit was carried out under the guidance of Dr. Vilas Kharat. Universal Human Values sessions by Prof. Rajni Nair introduced the basics of Holistic Development to our students. It helped them to clear their doubts on self and relationships. It allowed them to discover the values intrinsic in them through self-reflection. Student organizations and cells conducted fun games, art sessions and group activities for the first year students which helped them to build a bond between their peers and also the seniors. A proficiency test was conducted during the induction program to test student's knowledge and ability to perform in foundation courses and in English. Toppers were awarded with the certificates.

During the valedictory session, students came forward to share their feedback on the induction program. A talent show event was organized in which students performed as a team with their classmates. Winners of the talent round and other games conducted throughout the program were announced. This induction program was an amalgamation of events involving physical activities, games, team work, soft skill development, understanding of life skills and human values thus nurturing the holistic development of a student. The positive feedback of our students towards induction program is a motivation for General engineering Department to organize more such events. First-Year Induction Program 2020-21 was a great success with the teamwork of General engineering Department and the student volunteers under the guidance of Prof. Sharmila A.K. and Prof. Rajni Nair.

Department of Education

Yoga – Self Development Skill

Master of Education is an exhaustive program with theory and practical work. Besides this, the field oriented assignments, internship and the research work is mandatory. Our women students have to shoulder lot of responsibilities like household responsibilities, looking after family members and children along with their academics. It is natural that one can be exhausted and therefore in the semester I we provide them the inputs for yoga. This year our admissions delayed because of pandemic so, we have organised sessions from 17/5/2021 to 27/5/2021.

There were 28 students registered and 32 individuals attended. Though it in was online mode, the instructor provide corrective feedback time to time. Some of the students reported that they continued their yoga and benefited in balancing home and academic work.
